PLASTER OF PARIS. We have frequently ecommended the liberal use of Plaster of Paris on our farms, and gardens. ' Every farmer and gardener, should have a supply on hand, to meet the many uses to which it may be put Mr. Geo. Trowbridge of Camden, N. HALF AN ACRE OF GROUND ON FIRE,-The editor of the Attica (Ind.) Ledger was informed a few days since of a curious case of spontaneous combustion, about two miles south of Perrysville, in that state. About haif an acre of ground is on fire, and has been burning vigorously for some time. The earth is composed mostly of a kind of marl, in which the heat has made crevices. and the smoke may be seen issuing from the subterruneau furnace a distance of two miles. But the most singular feature of this natural lake-oven is its beautiful cover ing of green grass—an oasis in the cheer-less field of snow surrounding it. Cattle attempted to eat the grass, but finding the earth rather warm, scrambled out and left it growing in its hot-bed. Our informant pierced the surface with a rail, and fiery parks came up thickly. A sound issues from the spot like the distant rumbling of of railway cars. The place was formerly a

A Good Move .- Petitions asking Con gress, in view of the late, present and pros pective obstructions of the Mississippi river by armed forces of the seceding states, to make instant provision for the purchase and speedy colorgement of the Illinois and Michigan Canal, are in circulation in this city, and will shortly be sent for signatures to Boston and New York. This is a good move and not untimely. The vast and in-creasing commerce of the north-west must have a cheap and easy outlet to the seaboard; and if the way by New Orleans is blocked up by the madness and folly of Mississippi and Louisiana, the enlargement of that canal is a national necessity which no administration would dare overlook and when that enlargement is once completed the uses of the Mississippi for the purposes of navigation would be at an end; ever might happen in the litical world, goods could be transported from Memphis to New York or Boston much cheaper, quicker and more safely than by the old channel; and though, having impoverished themselves by the secession folly, the states near the mouth of the Mississippi might return to the Union, like the prodigal son to his father, they never could regain the trade which the scheme now in contemplation would snatch from their hands. Let the channel once be dug, Memphis, or flour from St. Louis could make their way to the docks in Chi cago, and the north-west could almost af

"Please, sir," said the favorite, "I was dreamin' that I was goin to Caloforny, and I thought the school bell was the steamboat bell, as was goin' it." "Very well," said the master, glad of any pretext to excuse his favorite; "and now, sir," turning to the other, "what have you to say?" "Please, sir," said the puzzled boy, " I-1-was waiting to see Tom off!"

Texas-Passage of the Ordinance of SECESSION .- From the Austin correspondence of the Houston Telegraph we take nance of Secession, to take effect on the 2d of March, and to be submitted to the people for ratification on the 23d inst., has just passed the convention by a vote of 166 ayes to 7 noes. A splendid banner was immediately presented to the convention by the ladies of Austin, through Attorney General Flournoy, and received on the parl of the convention by John A. Wharton, both delivering short but eloquent addresses. The old hero of San Jacinto sat on the right of the president. Another correspondent says: FEBRUARY 1st, one P. M .- The hall is crowded with ladies and spectators.: Gen. McQueen, commissioner from South Caro lina, and Chief Justice Wheeler, had posi tions on the left of the president, the gov ernor and lieutenaut governor on the right The ordinance of secession was passed this day, February 1st at half past 12 o'clock. [Min above are Rivel Class, justly popular, and prompt popular companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their rad merits. In point, of solvency and reliability, and honorable dealing, they have but few quals, and so superiors. They are founded upon the very less securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten'y ears depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permalent than railroad, hank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and limbs, in times of parties, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely valueless. And while there are companies entering the field of competition, well entered attachments of their condition, and without a cash intriplus on hand sufficient to reinsure, their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount; and in most instances from times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks, for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an exercising.

Official Paper of the City.

The Kansas Famine.

We observe that certain citizens of Leavenworth, Kausas, have made public a caution against the statements of Thaddeus Hyatt, in regard to the sufferings of that state. They deny that Kansas is a charnel house and that all classes are approaching starva-

This statement admits, however, that "about one-fifth of the people need aid from abroad." One-fifth of the population of Kansas is 28,729. This number of people cannot be supplied with food four months for less than $100,000, if it is transported to their doors, as it must be if they are to get it. Their teams are giving out from want of food : besides they will be needed in twenty days, to commence putting in spring grain.

To prevent the famine from extending through the summer, these people will need donations of seed wheat, and in fact seeds of all kinds, and if they do not receive them, they will suffer and perhaps die, after they have been fed through the winter.

It is possible that Mr. Hyatt may have made his statements pretty strong. He says that 50,000 people need aid-the Leavenworth citizens say nearly 30,000. When it is known that both are cstimates some latitude may be fairly attributed to both.---The Leavenworth cantion says there have been no authenticated cases of starvation; we think Mr. Hyatt has never said that any one has, as yet, actually died from this cause, but that there is reason to apprehend it. We think, if 30,000 people are obliged to depend upon charity for the next four months, a few more such cautious as this one from Leavenworth, will make Mr. Hyatt's rpprehensions true.

We are well satisfied that our people have made donations to a good and worthy cause, in giving to the suffering people of Kansas, and they should not relax their efforts in that behalf, by such statements as this one from Leavenworth, which while admitting the extent of the calamity, attempts to prejudice those who are active in averting it. If Leavenworth had been made the distributing point of this charity we should have had no warning from its citizens, calculated to diminish the amount of the donations from

Visit from the German Workingmen.

Near two thousand of the German free workingmen of the city marched in procession to the Burnett House, Cincinnati. many of them bearing torches, and called upon the president elect. Mr. Lincoln was escorted to the balcony, and was greeted on behalf of the workingmen by Mr. Fred. Oberkleine, who formally presented the following brief address:

To Abraham Lincoln, President elect of the United

Sin:—We, the German Workingmen of Cincinnati, avail ourselves of this opportunity to assure you, our chosen Chief Magistrate, of our sincere and heartfelt regard You earned our votes as the champion of free labor and free homesteads. Our vanquished opponents have, in recent times, made frequent use of the terms "working-men" and "workingmen's meetings," in order to create an impression, as if the mass of workingmen were in favor of compromises between the interests of free labor and slave labor, by which the victory jus won would be turned into a defeat. This is a despicable device of dishonest men.— We spurn such compromises. We firmly adhere to the principles which directed our votes in your favor. We trust, that you, the self reliant because self made man, will this end you should be in need of men, the German free workingmen, with others, will rise as one man at your call, ready to risk their lives in the effort to maintain the victory already won by freedom over slavery. In regard to Germans and foreigners, I esteem foreigners no better than other people, nor any worse. The Progress of the President Elect.

Mr. Lincoln and suite left Columbus for Pittsburgh at 8 o'clock a. m. on the 14th. At all the large towns on the route there were public demonstrations and immense crowds of people, and at every station, despite the Fifty-two guns were fired in commemoraunfavorable weather, the people were out in large numbers, and the train was saluted as t passed.

At Steubenville, O., there were 8,000 or 10,000 people out, many of them from Virginia. A choir of 180 young ladies, from the Steubenville Seminary, gave, in a spirited style, the "Red, White and Blue."

Mr. Lincoln responded as follows, to the address of the mayor:

He said he feared the great confidence in his ability to administer, the government inded. Indeed, I am sare it is encompassed by wast, difficulties. Nothing be wanting on my part, sustained by God and the American people. I believe the devotion to the constitution is, equally great on both sides of the river. It is only he different understanding of it. The on ly dispute is what are their rightsnajority should not rule, who should be the udge? When such is found, we must all be bound by the decision. That judge i the majority of the American people, not, then the minority must control. We hat be just, or generous? Assuredly not. If we adopt a wrong policy, the opportunity to condemn would occur in four years. Then I can be turned out and a better man with better views be put in my place. A Rochester, O., a tall coal-heaver stepped upon the platform and said to Mr. Lin coln, "I want to shake hands with you; I can lick salt off the top of your head."-Laughter.] Mr. L. shook hands and then good naturedly measured statuers with him, the President elect, for a rarity, using his whole length, and coming out a trifle ahead in point of length, to the great satisfaction of the crowd.

About twenty-five miles from Pittsburgh a freight train was off the track which caused a detention of two hours and defeated the great préparations which had been made at Pittsburgh to receive the President elect. The train arrived at Alleghany City, opposite Pittsburgh, at eight o'clock in the evening, in the midst of a heavy rain.

Mr. Lincoln here made a short speech to the crowd, who filled the streets and the hotel determined to see him. He promised them a speech more at length, next day, addressed to the citizens of Alleghany county. A joint committee of the legislature of Pennsylvania, met him here, and it is decided that he will visit Harrisburgh, on his way from Philadelphia to Baltimore.

Mr. Lincoln bore his fatigues well so far, and every thing has transpired to make his journey gratifying in every respect.

At Pittsburgh, on the 15th, the weather was inauspicious, a heavy rain falling till eight o'clock. Mr. Lincoln was waited upon by the Pittsburgh city council in a body, and at half-past eight was addressed by the mayor. Mr. Lincoln replied somewhat at length, dwelling upon the subject of the tariff. When an authentic report of this speech is received we shall publish it. He, however, declared that the tariff plank of the Chicago platform, upon this subject, should be a general law to the incoming administration.

Immediately after the delivery of the speech and his introduction to the people, Mr. Lincoln and his party left for the depot, where a great crowd was waiting, in the rain, and he departed amid the greatest enthusiasm.

As before, at all the points on the route where there was a moment's delay, the crowds of people were immense and alive with enthusiasm.

The train arrived at Cleveland at 4:20 P. M., amid the roaring of artillery. Military and fire companies made a fine display amid the wildest enthusiasm, while the prouphold the constitution and the laws against | cession moved through the principal streets, secret treachery and avowed treason. If to to the Weddell House. The acting mayor welcomed the president. Mr. Lincoln responded briefly, as follows:

Mr. Chairman and fellow citizens of Cleveland: We have been marching about two miles through snow and mud; the large numbers that have come out under sonally. I should be doing you injustice to suppose so. You have assembled to testify your respect to the Union, the constituand not with any one man. It rests with person who now addresses you. What is said now will not hurt the people farther of the honest, struggling laboring man, so far as my judgment will enable me to judge of a correct thing, I am for that thing.

awayfrom here. Have they not all their rights now, as they ever have had? Do they not have their fugitive slaves returned now, as ever? Have they not the same constitu-tion that they have lived under for the last seventy odd years? Have not they a position as citizens of this common country? upon all these complaints? This crisis is artificial; its foundation, in fact, was not argued up, as the saying is, and cannot, therefore, be argued down. Let it alone, and it will go down itself. (Laughter.)

In the evening Mr. Lincoln held a levee and thousands attended. He left at 9 o'clock Friday morning for Buffalo.

The associated press reporter has author ity for stating that any delegations, such as Wide Awakes, or others, would be disagreeable to Mr. Lincoln, either as receptions or escort.

"SLIPPERY PLACES." - The Christian Advocate gets off the following:

At the meeting in one of our churches not long since, the exhortations of the brethren seemed to turn to the slippery places on which the sinner stands. At length one of the sisters, carrying out the allusion, said that it seemed to her that some of the plication to the Secretary of the Navy to members of the church, too, preferred slip-recall his resignation; but it was promptly pery places to the prayer meeting—referning to the skating manua in the city.

Republican Meeting in Rutland.

RUTLAND, Feb. 12. An enthusiastic meeting was held last night over which Hon. Jason Ames presided, assisted by Henry W. Sholts, esq. tion of the birth day of Abraham Lincoln. Seven speeches were made, all expressing devotion to the constitution of the United States, and a determination of standing upon the Chicago platform. Much good feeling prevailed. The people in this section of the state are opposed to all compromise, and are willing to tender their services to old Abe when called upon to preserve the Union.

N. B. We hail with pleasure the stand taken by the Janesville Gazette and Free Press against compromising.

Absent-The Mayor and Aldermen Dick son and Pease. Ald. Shelton was called to the chair.

An appropriation of $6.54 was made to Mr. Phelps on salary for taking care of the ouncil room.

The following report was made to the council: to the How the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville:

I herewith report the total amount of orders issued on the several finds to date, by the present conneil, commencing September 1st, 1881, no orders having been issued by the council previous to that date, to with the council previous to the council previous to the council previous to the council previous to the council previous the council pre 102 12

On motion of Ald. Bates, the vote author zing an order on the judgment fund to Mc-Key & Bro. for $451.18 was rescinded, an order for that amount having been previusly authorized.

An account of R. T. Lawton, late sheriff, for $37.55 was allowed at $9.25-the rejected balance being a claim for keeping prisoners committed to jail under the order to punish drunkenness after the repeal of the ordinance.

The finance committee was granted further time to report on the accounts of former ity treasurers.

Ald. Bates introduced a resolution to transfer to the general fund the license money now on hand and to be received until the 1st of September next.

Ald. B. stated that he knew that the couny had received within the last two years at least $1500 on the redemption of certificates on city property which not been paid or credited to the city, and he believed that the county now held from $3000 to $4000 which belonged to the city. He proposed to retain the license money as an offset until the next settlement with the county .-The resolution was adopted.

On motion, an order on the bonded debt fund was authorized to be issued to Wm. Macloon to pay school bond No. 8 and the accrued interest since the 1st of February

The city treasurer was instructed to pay no bond issued by the city until the bond has been presented to the council and an order for payment issued by the council.

On motion of Ald. Tallman, the finance committee, in connection with the city clerk, were instructed to ascertain what city bonds have been paid and what are still outstanding, and report at the next regular meeting of the council. Adjourned.

BONDED DEST OF THE CITY .- A statement was made in the council last evening that the bonded dept of the city, exclusive of the railroad bonds, was only about $30, 000. For this the city owns the high school building, the 2d and 4th ward buildings, and all their appurtenances, which cannot be of less value than $60,000. What other city in the state can make as favorable an exhibit as this?

The democratic papers of Indian polis and Louisville, Ky., do not like the tone of Mr. Lincoln's questions, in his peech at Indianapolis, about coercion and nvasion. It absolutely "alarms" these patriots that any suggestion should be made, by the president elect, which looks like colecting the revenues of the country, or tacing possession of its fortifications, built at the expense of the whole people. They think it will certainly inaugurate civil war. if this is undertaken. This may be, but Mr. Lincoln will not be responsible for it if it does. It will be those who resist the execution of the laws. Now, if they don't senals, and mints, they have stolen. We are in favor of giving these hot-headed secessionists a little time to get cool, but in the end the general government must enforce its laws in the whole country.

Under the new congressional apportionment, Ohio will lose two members of congress. She will only have room for nine teen of her great sons in the halls of con-gress.—Madison Patriot.

The loss in Ohio will be made more than good by the addition of three of the "great sons" of Wisconsin.

THEY TAKE THEIR SEEDS AND SALKBIES -The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says that all documents, seeds, &c., which belonged to seceding senators and representatives have been forwarded to them by express and mail.-They have drawn all of their salaries for the full session.

The Secretary of War has omitted estimates for all work south of the Chesapeake with the exceptions of forts Calhoun, Paylor and Jefferson. The latter having derived an importance from recent events he remmends that the amount of estimates be appropriated.

Douglas made a fierce fight against the farmers of the west, throwing all his weight into the scale of one Union, Wade, Trumbull, Fessenden, Grimes, Bingham and Chandler defended the farmers against the monopolist.

OILING LEATHER .- The Scientific Amer ican says that oils should not be applied to dry leather, as they invariably injure it.—
If you wish to oil a harness, wet it over night, cover it with a blanket, and in the morning it will be dry and supple; ther apply neat's foot oil in small quantities, and and with so much elbow grease as will in-sure its disseminating itself throughout the leather. A soft, pliant harness is easy to handle, and last longer than a neglected one. Never use vegetable oils'; neat's foot is the BAD LUCK AND GOOD LUCK .- Bad luck is simply a man with his hands in his pockets and his pipe in his mouth, looking on to see how it will come out. Good luck is a mar of pluck, with his sleeves rolled up and working to make it come right.

Location of the Post Office.

Editors Gazette:-While our community are interested in the matter of who shall be the Postmaster they have a deeper interest in the locality of the office. We of the west side claim a little consideration as to the location of the post office by the incoming administration, and the man who expects to get a respectable number of petitioners from the west side, must at least sympathize with their wishes in a substantial manner. We are not in favor of locating the new office further west than the Central Bank, neither would we oppose a location on the east side, but if the latter, let us have it on the skirts of the river, either in the new block which Jackman & Smith intend to build, or in Woolliscroft's building. We understand that Mr. Woolliscroft is ready to rent his building on the most reasonable terms. A change we must have, and in this we speak the unchangeable sentiments of nearly every west side Yours respectfully, resident. Janesville, Feb. 16, 1861. CITIZEN.

ORDERS ISSUED BY THE CITY .- By a report made by the city clerk to the council last evening, it appears that city orders to the amount of $8,423 96 have been issued by the present council, and that more than one-half of this has been drawn from the judgment fund. The entire expenditures for the general, the bridge, the fire department, the gas and the several ward funds for the last nine months have been only $3,677 54. About three-quarters of the entire tax levied the present year we understand has been collected, and if the same economy in expenditures is observed for the three months to come as has been practised in the nine months past, the floating debt of the city will be handsomely lossened even with the amount of tax collec-

THE YOUTH'S TEMPERANCE LECTURER BY DR. C. JEWETT .- For want of timely warning and proper instruction, thousands of the youth of Wisconsin are annually led to commence habits of tippling that we have reason to fear will end in confirmed habits of intemperance and ultimate and complete ruin. We can conceive of nothing aside from proper parental instruction and example, better calculated to guard our youth from commencing the downward course than familiarity with the pages of this ad mirable little book. Appropriate truths are presented in their proper order in this little manual, and being aptly illustrated with many appropriate engravings, cannot fail to make a decided and salutary impression on the minds of the young reader. Every one who has had the good fortune to listen to the Doctor's public discourses on temperance would expect from him, in a book for children, just such practical common sense views as crowd the pages of this little work. A dime can scarcely be better spent by a parent than in putting a copy of the book in the hands of his child. For sale by O. J. Dearborn.

BREAKING THE ROAD .-- Not only the railronds but the common roads of the country have been blocked up by the recent heavy fall of snow, and the shovel has been put in requisition on the horse track as well as the iron rail. Yesterday morning, 8 teams, accompanied by about 30 men, started from Emerald Grove to open a way to Janesville. The "train" finally came through, but the job was a tough one, two miles of the distance the track being entirely obliterated and requiring shoveling before the horses could make the least headway.

EDITORS GAZETTE :- The enclosee resolutions were adopted by the meeting at the close of Dr. Jewett's lectures delivered in this city a few weeks since. Through inadvertance their publication was omitted at the time, and to do so now is deemed desirable and important by many citizens who listened to the Course.

Resolved, That this community are under deep and lasting obligations to Dr. Chas. Jewett for the able and instructive course of temperance lectures delivered in this city during the past week, and warmly commend him and his lectures to those communities where he may labor. Resolved, That we earnestly hope that the friends of the temperance cause in Wisconsin may be able to secure the co-op eration of Dr. Jewett in this state in arrest ing the giant evil (intemperance) that has its iron hold on so many of our tellow men SOMETHING NEW .- We hear that Major J. M. May will make an address to the ladies sewing society at its meeting next week. The well known ability of the Mujor, united with his established gallantry, ensures a successful accomplishment of his task. We are only surprised that with his qualifications for a difficult public duty, he has not yet made a successful personal " address" to some "gentle being" worthy of his affection and life-time care.

SUITS AGAINST THE COUNTY .- The suit of Lead vs. the supervisors of Rock county, to annul an alleged illegal tax certificate, was argued in the supreme court, at its present term, by Mr. Sloan, district attorney, for the county, and Mr. Knowlton for Mr. Head.

The suit of J. C. Jenkins and others and that of Ira Miltimore against the county will be submitted on a printed case and-

THE AMAISMANION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growgy tendency in this age to appropriate the most expresve words in other languages, and after a while to inorporate them into their own; thus the word Cephalic, hich is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is ow, becoming particularized in connection with Mr. psulding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be sed in a more general way, and the word Cophalic will

"Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'o gave.me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me' onor it curval me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

Car Heanache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names viz: Symptomatic and idiopathic. Symptomatic headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of disease, among which are Apoploxy, tout, libeumatism and all fabrile disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of the partic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other distribute headache, of worms, constipation and other distribute headaches; Amenia and plethora are also affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with headaches; Amenia and plethora are also affections which frequently coexison headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and postrating at once the mental and physical inguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and postrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acarbity of temper—In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking conting; under this class may also be named Neuralpia.

For the treatment of eithor class of headache the Cahalle Pills have been found a sure and sofe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power, eracidacting the diseases of which headache headache the Cahalle Pills have been found a sure and sofe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power, eracidacting the diseases of which headache the Cahalle Pills have been found a sure and sofe remedy.

Entborn.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cophalic Giuo, no. a bottle of prepared Pills.—but I'm thinking that's not just it neither; but perhaps ye'll be atther knowing what is is. 'Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the sick headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is helr to" is so prevulent, so little understood, and so much neglocted as costiveness. Often originating in carclessness, or sedoutary babits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of toollitic consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradiented it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colio, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Files and others of like nature, while a long train of fright diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesso, Dysonary, Diarrhess, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely as will expel the insiduous approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is your headache?

Ars. Jones.—Gone! Boctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy. Physician.—You can get them at any Drugglets.— Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I re-commend them in all cases of headache. Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all ray suffering friends, for they are a real blessing
